Short introduction to the study tour, the plan for the day, and introductions.

0900: VISIT 1 - Manchester University – Dalton Ellis Hall

Emma Stansfield or Wendy Hardman will meet the group at 0900h prompt to welcome the group to Dalton Ellis Hall at Manchester University. The dining room on this campus is one of several dining rooms to offer Chinese breakfast options to their students.

The breakfast offered here will demonstrate to delegates a great example of institutions responding to students' needs and preferences. Check out the dumplings which are now cooked two ways (deep fried and steamed) to cater for the different cooking cultures between Southern and Northern China students. The Manchester University representative will talk to delegates about the success of this initiative and offer all delegates a sample of the Chinese breakfasts.

Taxis to visit 2, Home Sweet Home

1000: VISIT 2 – Home Sweet Home - American

Generous helpings of comfort food and over-the-top indulgent treats to satisfy all your heart's cravings - toasties, tacos, eggs, bacon, waffles, fried chicken, steak, coffee, milkshake, cakes - Home Sweet Home is classic American dining with high quality, fresh ingredients.

1040: Walk to visit 3, Federal Café Bar (2-minute walk)

1045: VISIT 3 – Federal Café Bar - Antipodean

“COME RAIN OR SHINE, WE OFFER THE CITY'S SUNNIEST WELCOME”

A little slice of Antipodean happiness in the heart of the city, and are keen to share this authentic, enjoyable experience with anyone and everyone who walks through their doors.

We make everything we possibly can on the premises using the best ingredients which we check daily for freshness & quality. These ingredients are all sourced from sustainable independent local suppliers (where humanly possible)

1140: Walk to visit 4, Dishoom (5-minute walk)

1130: VISIT 4 – Dishoom - Indian

Breakfast is served from 8am to 11.45am on weekdays

Dishoom has an air-tight concept that pays loving homage to the Irani cafes that were once part of the fabric of life in Bombay. Opened early last century by Zoroastrian immigrants from Iran, there were almost 400 of these cafes at their peak in the 1960s.

Walk to visit 5, KAI (5-minute walk)

1240: VISIT 5 – KAI -Turkish

At Kai, Istanbul cafe culture tradition comes together with traditional culinary methods. We focus on pristine traditional ingredients and cultural dishes that can be enjoyed and shared between friends and family. Our menu pays modern homage to some of Turkey's most ancient flavours – showcasing beautiful Turkish influences and exotic flavours. Our pita bread is made in house and grilled in a fire oven and our shisha is carefully selected from sources we have encountered on our travels to Istanbul.

Walk to visit 6, Moose Coffee (8-minute walk)

1355: VISIT 6 – Moose Coffee - Canadian

Moose coffee is a coffee and breakfast place which constantly has people queuing outside with a 30 min waiting time for a table - Don't worry – We'll have a reservation! Coffee lovers frequent Moose, and the menu offers American and Canadian 'authentic' breakfasts. Delegates will see the contrast in the American food at Alabama's and at Moose. We will discuss the authenticity of foods vs stereotypical dishes, presentation of food and the importance of coffee.

Walk to visit 7, The Koffee Pot (9-minute walk)

1500: VISIT 7 – The Koffee Pot – British

"The only café in the UK serving brekkies from all 4 corners of it".

Also offering a 'Brinner' menu now (Breakfast for Dinner)

Delegates will consider the concept that this establishment follows which is all about making the most of the space you have. Delegates will each get a cup of tea, coffee or juice and varieties of the Full Breakfasts to sample.

Walk to visit 8, Teacup Kitchen (4-minute walk)

1600: VISIT 8 – Teacup Kitchen – Breakfast Beverages, locality & Debrief

Tea is our favourite thing and we pride ourselves on our collection; from loose-leaf and whole flower to bagged blends, we know what it takes to make the perfect pot, and we're all about making it special which is why we also boast the best afternoon teas in the Northern Quarter, as well as cakes that our customers can't help but come back for time and time again.

That's not all though, our infamous All-Day Brunches and Special lunches offer classic dishes and cater to all dietary requirements, and have been featured in cookbooks such as the Manchester Cook Book and The Good Food Guide. We always use Organic and Fairtrade produce where possible and are truly passionate in our efforts to help local farmers.

Delegates will be encouraged to discuss their findings from the study tour, and any plans that will be put in place following the day.

1630 Approx.: After all delegates have comfortably finished their drinks and sampling the food and beverages at the final visit, the Study Tour will draw to an end.

3 months after the Study Tour: Delegates will be contacted by the TUCO academy to hear an updated case study about their breakfast offerings to see if they have made any changes since the tour.

Additional Information

Travel:

Please note that whilst taxis will be provided from Manchester University to Manchester City Centre, delegates will be required to walk between each café/restaurant. The total estimated walking time for the day will be around 30 minutes. This will be broken up between each visit.

What's Included:

Everything detailed on the itinerary is included in the cost of the study tour. Each visit will include one drink and some food. In most cases food will be shared amongst the group in the middle of the table, but individual orders will also be taken during some visits.

What's not included:

Anything which is not listed on the itinerary such as any overnight accommodation that may be required and any additional drinks.

Manchester Accommodation:

Should you require accommodation in Manchester, we strongly recommend staying at Motel One – Royal Exchange. This hotel is located in the city centre and is a 1-minute walk from the TUCO HQ Offices. TUCO Academy can arrange your booking for you at a subsidised rate of £50.00 + VAT per room.

Dress Code:

Smart/Casual. Please wear comfortable shoes for walking.

Itinerary Changes:

Manchester City Centre is a hub for on trend all day breakfast and brunch restaurants and cafés. In the unfortunate case that any of the above establishments cannot take the group at the last minute, an alternative suitable visit will be provided for the group. As the itinerary is subject to change, the group should use the itinerary as a guideline only. The TUCO Representative reserves the right to make any amendments to the itinerary should they deem this necessary.
